In order to devote the available resources only to those who actually need them, the Equity Committee will carry out an assessment of the requests, giving priority to those facing the greatest difficulty in pursuing their current academic career. The scholarships will be awarded for a maximum total amount of € 70,000.00 (inclusive of IRAP and other legal charges) and a maximum amount per scholarship of € 2,000.00 (inclusive of IRAP and other legal charges), with the possibility of reducing this amount, providing in any case for a minimum per capita contribution of € 500.00 (inclusive of IRAP and other legal charges).

The amount of the scholarship may be adjusted at the sole discretion of the Equity Committee, including by differentiating the amount for individual beneficiaries, taking into account the seriousness of the economic situation presented, as well as the economic situation (ISEEU [Indicator of equivalent economic situation – university]/ISEE Parificato [Equivalent ISEE]) that may be found in the University database for the 2024-2025 academic year and/or earlier.

For those who receive the scholarships, there is also an exemption from payment of the one-off, all-inclusive fee and any additional course fees as per Art. 6.1.1, 6.1.2, 6.1.3.a) of the Tuition Fees and Contributions Regulations for the 2024-2025 academic year, due for enrolment in courses for the 2024-2025 academic year, with possible repayment of instalments already paid.

In the event that funds are not sufficient to provide a scholarship of the minimum amount of € 500 to all eligible students, eligible students who do not receive a scholarship are in any case exempt from payment of the one-off, all-inclusive fee and any additional course fees as per Art. 6.1.1, 6.1.2, 6.1.3.a) of the Tuition Fees and Contributions Regulations for the 2024-2025 academic year, due for enrolment in courses for the 2024-2025 academic year, with possible repayment of instalments already paid.

The IBAN code must refer to a bank account or prepaid/credit/debit card held or jointly held in the name of the student.
