How can sociological research widen the lens on age and aging and deepen the investigations of them? Reflecting on two decades in the field, Anne Barrett will propose a framework to guide future aging research. The presentation provides an overview of her research on four social dimensions of age – as an inequality, institution, performance, and identity. It concludes with an introduction to her current project on older Italians’ caregiving networks.

Venerdì 1 febbraio 2019
Ore 11.00, Aula 3D233
Campus Luigi Einaudi
Lungo Dora Siena 100, Torino

Iniziativa promossa nell’ambito delle attività dell’Osservatorio su Mutamento Sociale e Innovazione Culturale (MU.S.I.C.)