

OPERATION MANAGER - 2i3T INCUBATOR OF UNIVERSITA' DEGLI STUDI DI TORINO

Giuseppe Serrao, obtained a degree in “Business & Management”, at the Università degli Studi di Torino and after 10 years of experience in profit and no profit companies & organization in different roles; in 2007 he joined 2i3T Incubator since the beginning he was in charge of operations, setting up different activities as dissemination and promotion of entrepreneurial and knowledge transfer attitude inside the Academia, developing scouting activities to foster new ideas, business planning of projects, accelerating business development of innovative start ups. Actually he works with a crew of 13 people.

Some tips on 2i3T Incubator.

The Incubator 2i3T is based in Turin and was founded by the University of Turin, the City of Turin, Turin Province and Finpiemonte SpA. 2i3T aims to develop local economy by speeding up the creation of innovative start-up companies in knowledge intense sectors and better exploiting the results of academic research. Their main mission is to carry out the Technology Transfer needed and to exploit the commercialization opportunities found on the path from academic research to industry. Since 2007, 2i3T has launched 79 startups, in different sectors, 35% Health 20% in Agrofood, 16% Cleantech, 19% Digital and 9% Social Innovation, and created more than 400 jobs.