

Piervincenzo Bondonio

Education:

- Laurea (Law, University of Torino, Italy)
- Master (Economics, ISTAO, University of Ancona, Italy)

Present positions:

- Retired professor of Public Economics (Political Sciences, University of Torino)
- Lecturer of Programming, Management and Monitoring of Social Services (Department of Cultures, Politics and Society, University of Torino)

Previous Positions:

- Professor of Public Economics (Political Sciences, University of Torino) till October 30, 2012
- Associate Professor of Public Economics (University of Torino)
- Associate Professor of Theory of Economic Development (University of Torino)
- Associate Professor of Theory of Economic Development (University of Camerino, Italy)
- Assistant Professor of Public Finance (University of Camerino)

Other academic or professional activities:

- Professor of Public Sector Management, Coripe Master of Health Economics and Political Economy, Real Collegio, Moncalieri (till a.y. 2013)
- Departement of Economics and Statistics "Cognetti de Martiis", University of Turin, Former Director (Oct. 2010-July 2012)
- Politiche sanitarie, a Journal of Health Economics, member of Scientific Board
- Farmeconomia e Percorsi Terapeutici, a Journal of Pharmacoconomics, member of Scientific Board
- OMERO (Olympics and Mega Events Research Observatory), University of Torino, director

Research interests:

- Health economics and organization, and pharmaeconomics
- Economics of Olympics, mega events, and tourism
- Economic analysis of public sector
- Tax economics
- Economics of institutions and Public Choice
- Local government